- Any new business and/or questions and concerns from the public.
- Received possible grant for the village to consider getting the parking lot paved next summer next to the pickleball court.
- Discussion on potentially removing the fax line to the hall. Due to lack of use and purpose. As scan and email is the most used process for sending and receiving documents.
- Discussion on property for sale on Church St. Buyer had questions about getting water and sewer service installed.
- Z. Gotham gave Brad B. some follow up information on potential to pay off the Village USDA RD Water loan 91-01 early using TIF money. Brad will present that information to the Board.
- Discussion on the status of the soil removed from Railway Ave project across from Barney's. Sample results came back and Waste Management approved of disposal at their site on Hutchinson Road.
- Update on village referendum for potential purchase of VFW hall for a community center.

Approval of Financial Report and Disbursements.
